

UNIVERSITIES STEP UP, END CHINA TIES

Last Updated: October 8, 2025

The Select Committee commends U.S. universities that have taken decisive action to terminate partnerships with Chinese institutions that posed risks to national security and academic integrity. These decisions demonstrate leadership in safeguarding American research and defending the independence of higher education from the CCP's influence.

U.S. University	Former Chinese University Partner
University of California, Berkeley	Tsinghua University
Georgia Institute of Technology	Tianjin University
University of Michigan	Shanghai Jiaotong University
University of Pittsburgh	Sichuan University
Oakland University	Zhengzhou University of Light Industry
University of Detroit Mercy	Hubei University of Technology
Eastern Michigan University	Beibu Gulf University
University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign	Zhejiang University
University of Arizona	Hebei University of Technology Sias University Cooperative Education Program Ocean University of China Capital University of Economics and Business Northwest A&F University Hebei University of Technology
Florida Institute of Technology	Shijiazhuang Tiedao University
University of Miami	Henan University
Saint Martin's University	North China Institute of Aerospace Engineering